The Raven Mavens are Wellington jazz/blues duo Cindy Muggeridge and Marian Carter, two slinky songbirds who have a love for the evergreen, bright and breezy, jazzy songs that take you places and put a twinkle in your eye. Cindy is a veteran of some of the capital's finest blues bands and Marian is in demand as a vocalist, with several bands and recording sessions to her credit. With Cindy on funky piano and Marian on clarinet, these two fun-loving performers bring a sassy, sizzling, happy-go-lucky slant to living that will warm the coldest night.

Next Acoustic Night is on Friday, 28 June at the Scottish Society Hall. 7:30pm. All welcome. The optional theme is: 'songs about towns or cities'

Our guests for July 12th are a Wellington Band called 'Eb and Sparrow' - a four piece originals Alt-Country band. Ebony is a very talented young woman with a wonderful husky voice. They sound like Gillian Welch, Cowboy Junkies, and with songs that are old as the hills and as new as the breeze. Fusing country, folk, blues and Spanish guitar into a totally original sound from old roots. Hauntingly beautiful songs.
