CLUB NIGHT

Friday
August 10th

These five brothers have all followed their own musical paths for many years, occasionally teaming up in different combinations (Chris and Richard in folk and blues outfits, Richard and Daryl in jazz and classical music, Rod and Richard have joined forces at concerts and Chris, Robert and Richard have performed, over the years, in different lineups.

Now they all come together for a series of special performances.

Chris (guitar/vocal) won a Tui Award for best folk album in 2009 for 'Trouble on the Waterfront'. He has performed with blues singer Marg Layton and with Andrew Delahunty and recently performed and recorded with his daughter Eva Prowse of 'Fly My Pretties' fame.

Richard (double bass/vocal) has performed with Rodger Fox, Gordon Brisker(USA) and many other jazz and folk musicians. He is probably best recognised for his virtuoso arco playing.

Robert (violin) has a long history of playing in pit orchestras for shows and performing in different genres.

Rod (mandolin/guitar/vocal) has played mandolin and bass guitar in country bands around Wellington and has also turned his hand to songwriting - his songs are a feature of The Prowse Brothers' repertoire.

Daryl (banjo/piano) is a multi instrumentalist who performs equally proficiently on saxophone, guitar, piano, double bass and banjo.

Sept 14th
The Fedz

Our guests next month (September 14) are THE FEDZ - another first time appearance at our folk club.

The Fedz are Erin Manu, Frank John and Cameron ('Dusty') Burnell from Taranaki.

Old and new Americana, from the traditional to the alternative. And, everything in between. Each member of the trio takes a turn at singing lead and doing backing vocals, creating a unique range of styles from railroad hollers and gravelly delta blues to sweet gospel harmonies and high lonesome sound of bluegrass.

Acoustic Night is on the 4th Friday of the month . Horowhenua Scottish Society Hall 7:30pm

Cost :$2

Theme (optional) this month is " A song with a number in it" .

Acoustic Night

SOUND DESK TRAINING

Are there any LFMC Members interested in training for the sound desk? As announced at the AGM, David Trail (sound engineer from Tsunami Recording Studio in Levin), will be training a small group who have a keen interest and commitment in sound management of the folk club main night. Please email Andrew Salter (asalter@ihug.co.nz) if you would like to join these training sessions. These sessions, which will be funded by the folk club, are limited to people who intend to become a part of the folk club sound team. In case of excessive interest the number of applicants may need to be limited. The LFMC committee is looking forward to your reply prior to Saturday 11th of August 2012.

Ukenua Ukulele Group (early stage players) meets at the Levin Library fortnightly. 7:30 - 8:30 pm Meeting this month on 14th and 28th August. Free to club members or $2 non-members. Contact: Anne Campbell (annemc@ihug.co.nz)
