'Out of the Blue' is when something suddenly appears or arrives in your life unexpectedly. Although not entirely unprecedented, this grouping of experienced and talented performers preparing a show for the post covid Tsunami Sound Studio relocation concerts is a new venture for all concerned. Surprise or not, we are excited to combine the instrumental excellence of local Kevin Watson on guitar, the smooth vocals of singer/songwriter Gill Allen, the intuitive upright bass and singing of new kiwi Christine Lansford, with Levin's Simon Burgess adding his troubadour skills. This hugely internationally experienced group are proficient in many genres, weaving these skills into a varied program of jazz, folk, country and originals with tasty vocals and a gypsy flair. From ballads to gospel, raunchy to smooth, their biggest problem is not what to play, but what not to play! Note: Christine is caught in the USA/MIQ Covid trap and will not be back in New Zealand for this performance. We are lucky to have the able assistance of Berndt Reiss to cover for her

Club News

A large turnout of members came to the AGM held Friday 24 Sept which began with a short report from HSS Chief Chris Hartwell on the progress of remedial roof work due to be done once weather presents an opportunity. After presentation of the Treasurer's and Chairperson's reports, Chair Dianne Morris-Madill resigned, as did Dale Webb, Bookings/PR Officer. Jean Hollis also indicated her tenure as Secretary would most likely end by Christmas due to other commitments.

Elections proceeded with no other nominees for Chairperson and Geoff Toa was elected by acclamation as incoming Chair. Committee members John Jenkins, Paul Webster, Keith Heginbotham and Danny Healey were elected by acclamation, with Jean and Val continuing in their roles.

The increase to door charges was defeated so our October concert remains $5 members and $10 non-members.

Congratulations to all the 2021/22 committee, and many thanks to the outgoing committee members and other volunteers for their efforts on the Club's behalf. Please remember that assistance is always appreciated and makes the jobs much lighter.

Editor Announcement: Work/life commitments mean that this newsletter is my last as Editor. It's been a learning curve, but anyone can learn! Let Geoff Toa know if you have skills and the interest in continuing this on. Cheers, Cavan
